Cuban Exile Chief Gets Rebuke For Denouncing U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has publicly rebuked Cuban exile leader Jose Miro Cardona for his purported bitter denunciation of U.S. policy toward Cuba.

In doing so, the government declared publicly for the first time what has been rumored for days: that Miro had demanded a voice in U.S. policy toward the Communist island or else $50 million to mount an exile expedition against Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The U.S. government is not prepared to make any such agreements, the State Department declared. It took this position in a stinging rejoinder to Miro's reported criticism of U.S.-Cuban policy in his 20-page letter of resignation as president of the Cuban Revolutionary Council.

Promises Not Kept
The Miro letter has not been made public. The council—with Miro presiding—was still debating Monday night whether to do so. But enough informed descriptions of the letter were in the air for the State Department to turn loose its strong statement.

Informed of the State Department comments, Miro said Monday night: "I told the truth. I do not tell lies."

"I have never asked a second invasion," he added. "I have asked for hemispheric cooperation for joint military action."

Sources who claim to have studied the letter say it includes:—A detailed account of Miro's relations with the U.S. government—including President Kennedy—since the ill-fated Bay of Pigs invasion of 1961.

—Charges the United States is pre-occupied on promises to act against Castro; promises including that of a second invasion.

—Complaints that the United States has embarked on a course of coexistence toward the Soviet satellite in the Caribbean.

—In general, a loud protest at lack of U.S. support for action against Castro.

Letter "Inaccurate"
The council still hasn't accepted Miro's resignation. It has planned a formal meeting for Thursday night to decide its course.

The gist of the State Department declaration was that the United States doesn't want to be drawn into an all-out war by anti-Castro exiles.

The department said: "While appreciating the urgent desire of the Cuban exiles to return to a free and independent Cuba at the earliest possible date—a desire which is fully shared by the people and the government of the United States—the department considers this statement (the Miro letter) a gross distortion of recent history and of this government's policy with respect to the elimination of Castro communism from this hemisphere."

The department said Miro's letter "as it relates to conversations with the President and others in the government is highly inaccurate and distorted."

Report Shows Increase In Jobs
WASHINGTON (AP)—In the new survey from Washington: JOB: The Labor Department has drawn a brightening picture of employment and the economy in general.

It reported Monday that the number of nonfarm workers increased by 260,000 to 55 million in March. Figuring the seasonal factors, this is a record for any month.

Other government statistics, the department said, also pointed to a strengthening of the economy. These included increases in factory employment, employment in nonmanufacturing industries and in average weekly earnings.

Some of the favorable signs, however, may be due to firms increasing their steel inventory as a hedge against a possible steel strike, said Harold Goldstein, assistant labor statistics commissioner.

The department's figures amplified a previous announcement that March employment increased by 800,000 to 67.1 million while unemployment declined by over 400,000 to 4.5 million. This cut the seasonally adjusted jobless rate to 5.6 per cent in March from February's 6.1 per cent.

Expecting Third Child In August; Kennedys Elated

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President and Mrs. Kennedy are expecting their third child in August and are elated.

The vacation White House announced the news Monday and said the First Lady, 33, is in good health but will cancel her official activities.

Thus the President, 45, joins his two younger brothers in the waiting game. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's wife Ethel is expecting their eighth child in June. Joan, wife of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., is awaiting their third in August.

Not since the days of Grover Cleveland has a First Family had such an announcement to make. Cleveland was the father of five. One daughter, Esther, was the first child born to a president in office. She was born in the White House on Sept. 9, 1893.

Press Corps Surprised
The Kennedys have been obviously elated at the prospect of another child and their good humor has been evident during their Easter holiday at this Florida resort community.

With them are their children, Caroline, 5, and John Jr., 2.

There had been persistent rumors in recent weeks that Mrs. Kennedy might be pregnant because since late December she has virtually given up her favorite sports of horseback riding and water skiing.

But, when White House press secretary Pierre Salinger announced that he would hold a special 5:30 p.m. news briefing, the press corps speculated on such weighty topics as steel price rises and the President's forthcoming trip to Europe.

It took all by surprise when Salinger read this statement: "The White House announced today that Mrs. Kennedy is expecting a baby in the latter half of August. Mrs. Kennedy has maintained her full schedule for the past few months. Because of this active schedule, her physicians have now advised her to cancel all her official activities."

Among the official activities was Mrs. Kennedy's expected trip with the President to Italy this summer.

Stays At Cape Cod
She will spend this summer at Cape Cod with her children. She expects to return to Washington for the birth of the baby which will be delivered by Caesarean section.

The First Lady, who has a history of miscarriages, has obviously been taking it easy in recent months, but her health and condition were reported to be fine.

The principal physician attending her has been Dr. John W. Walsh, a Washington obstetrician who delivered John Jr. when he was born prematurely at Georgetown University Hospital in Washington in the early morning hours of Nov. 25, 1960, the day after Thanksgiving. Kennedy, just elected president but still not in office, rushed back from the start of a Palm Beach vacation.

Caroline was born in New York on Nov. 27, 1957.

For Mrs. Kennedy, the forthcoming birth will be her fifth Caesarean section.

Both Caroline and John Jr. were delivered by Caesarean. Also Mrs. Kennedy had an emergency Caesarean in 1955 when a baby was born dead a month prematurely.

Salinger said Mrs. Kennedy will stay on in Palm Beach another week after the President returns to Washington Wednesday. She plans to go to Cape Cod in May.

Man Who Missed Fatal Thresher Trip Testifies

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—A Navy lieutenant, who took a last-minute leave and thereby missed the final, tragic voyage of the nuclear submarine Thresher, takes the stand today at the court of inquiry attempting to discover the cause of the disaster.

Lt. Raymond A. McCoole, 33, of Dover, N. H., father of five had asked for leave just before the Thresher left Portsmouth Naval Shipyard for sea trials. He said his wife had an accident.

McCoole, who joined the Thresher crew in October after the vessel arrived at Portsmouth for an overhaul, had never been to sea on the submarine.

A former crew member, Frank J. Destefano Jr., chief machinist mate, who recently transferred from the Thresher, is also scheduled to testify.

The Thresher, with 129 men aboard, never reappeared after a test dive 220 miles east of Cape Cod. Last communication with the vessel was at 9:17 a.m. Wednesday.

Craft In Good Shape
The five-man court closed a hearing session for the first time Monday to hear testimony from Vice Adm. Elton W. Grenfell, commander of the Atlantic submarine fleet.

Grenfell, final witness of the day, was asked if he had a personal theory of what happened to the Thresher. The admiral said his theory was classified.

The room was cleared for 25 minutes.

Testimony as to the fitness of the submarine was given by Capt. William Heronemus of Madison, Wis., shipbuilding and repair superintendent at the shipyard.

"I know of no ship in better readiness, I never knew of a ship with so few discrepancies before sailing," he said.

The skipper of the USS Skylark, Lt. Cmdr. Stanley Hecker, 36, of Brooklyn, N.Y., told of the last two messages from the Thresher—both garbled—as she tried to surface after her ill-fated test dive.

Memorial Service Held
Hecker said the Thresher signaled the Skylark, her surface escort vessel.

"Experiencing minor problem—(a pause)—have positive angle—(another pause)—attempting to blow."

Hecker said the sound of air rushing into the Thresher's ballast tanks obscured another message.

Only the last two words "test depth" of a second message were audible, Hecker said.

Another witness told the court last week he thought the final words were "exceeding test depth."

Hecker said that while searching for the Thresher after contact was lost he sighted a hull "that looked like a submarine sail."

But, Hecker said, he got no reliable information.

Truce Is Broken Quickly In Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Renewed fighting has broken a Lao-Lao cease-fire agreement before it could take effect, reportedly because neutralist Gen. King Le is refusing to give up isolated positions.

Informed sources said Kong Le agreed Sunday to pull back trapped forces from two outposts, then changed his mind overnight.

New shooting broke out shortly after the cease-fire was to become effective Sunday night. Kong Le said the pro-Communist Pathet Lao attacked his troops and six of his men were wounded.

The clash Sunday night occurred on a winding dirt road that is the only link between the provincial capital of Xieng Khouang and the Plain des Jarres, about 27 miles away.

Kong Le's neutralists, forced out of Xieng Khouang, still control part of the road. Under the cease-fire agreement they were to evacuate troops trapped at Dong Danh and Ban Kosi during the retreat eight days ago from Xieng Khouang.

Withdrawal from both positions, sources said, would leave Kong Le with virtually no strength outside the hill-locked Plain where most of his 5,000 troops are bottled up.

QUITO, Ecuador (AP)—Two trains approached a station on a nose-to-nose collision course Monday and dozens of frightened passengers jumped out of windows. Twenty persons were injured in falls—but there was no collision.

The engineer of one train managed to get it in reverse and backed away in time as the other train bowled into the station near Guayaquil with faulty brakes and whistle screaming.

Democrats Attack Expansion Bill As 'Pork Chop' Deal

LANSING (AP)—A temporary delay slowed down Senate consideration of a key measure in Gov. George Romney's economic expansion program Monday when a Democrat branded the bill as a "pork chop" proposal.

The senators moved more than 20 House-approved bills up to the final voting stage but postponed action on one which would create a department and council on economic expansion to replace the present economic development department.

"This is just another one of Gov. Romney's pork chop bills," declared Sen. William Ford, D-Taylor. "He's not satisfied now with the number of pork chops he has to hand out."

Ford said the real purpose of the measure was to provide the governor with the power to appoint the director of the proposed economic expansion commission.

More Patronage
"This will give him another high-priced executive and more patronage to pay off his political debts," Ford contended.

Sen. John Bowman, D-Roseville, declared he was shocked by what his fellow Democrats had to say and moved that consideration of the bill be postponed until later. There was no protest from Republicans.

Meanwhile, state business took a back seat to the federal government today as Michigan lawmakers flew north for a one-day inspection tour of Wurtsmith Air Force Base near Oscoda.

Legislators accepted the invitation extended by Sec. of Defense Robert McNamara to be guests of the U.S. Air Force for the visit to the highly classified, security-bound installation.

Similar invitations have been extended to legislatures in other states, explained Rep. James Mielock, R-Whitmore, handling the arrangements.

A brief session was to be held upon the lawmakers' return in mid-afternoon, but it appeared unlikely they would have time to cut very far into the load of legislation remaining to be handled before the April 26 adjournment deadline.

Only One Passed
Some 168 bills are on the docket in the Senate, with another 87 pending in the House.

The legislature returned Monday from its three-day Easter weekend and spent the night in debate, but passed only one bill.

The House approved, 78-24, a Senate bill setting a minimum $2 license plate fee for vehicles.

In other action, the Senate moved up to third-reading stage the controversial small loan bill, but not without amendments to the House version.

As passed by the House, the bill would increase the ceiling on loans by finance companies from the present $500 to $1,500.

The Senate trimmed the maximum to $1,000 in its committee-of-the-whole debate and reduced to 1 1/4 per cent per month the interest rate to be charged on the amount of loans above $300. The House version pegged the interest at 1 1/2 per cent.

There was no change made in the Senate on the House-approved rate of 2 1/2 per cent per month on any loan under $300.

Peace Spy Ring Raided In London
LONDON (AP)—Scotland Yard made pre-dawn raids today in its campaign to crack the "Spies for Peace" ring for betraying some of Britain's nuclear survival secrets.

Swinging into action after a wild, fist-throwing "ban the bomb" rally, agents of the special branch dealing with security offenses swooped on houses in search of a typewriter used to draw up pamphlets first distributed during the weekend peace march on London. The pamphlets disclosed secret plans for dispersal of government offices in the event of a nuclear attack.

Publication of the secret government plans was described by Home Secretary Henry Brooke as "the work of a traitor."

The special branch has been told that the mysterious antiwar group has printed another series of leaflets revealing more official secrets.

Young detectives, many of them in beatnik outfits, mingled with the ban the bomb marchers Monday on the watch for the new leaflets. One marcher who was distributing leaflets from a shopping bag was arrested. The leaflets were digests of the original pamphlet. Some 25,000 copies of the digest were reported distributed.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's government has been plagued by repeated security scandals. Strong attacks on it are considered inevitable April 23 when Parliament reassembles.

Macmillan returned to London from his home in Sussex to deal with developments.

Word Awaited From Nation's No. 1 Producer

NEW YORK (AP)—A pattern of selective price increases seemed to be taking shape today in the steel industry but there still was no word from the No. 1 producer, U.S. Steel Corp.

Republic Steel Corp., the third ranking firm, fell into line with three smaller companies by posting price increases averaging $3.54 a ton on products that accounted for about one-fourth of 1962 sales.

The decision-making executive committee of U.S. Steel, which initiated last year's selective price rise, was to meet in regular monthly session in New York today.

Congress Inquiry Called
Few thought that higher prices fixed by Republic and Pittsburgh Steel Co. Monday, and two other companies earlier, could stand up unless U.S. Steel went along.

"Big Steel," as U.S. Steel is known in the trade, accounts for about one-fourth of the industry's tonnage.

There was no new word from President Kennedy, following developments, from his Florida vacation site. The President last week cautioned against any upset in economic stability but conditionally approved increases on selected steel products.

Shortly before Republic's announcement, citing increased production costs and declining profits, a congressional inquiry into steel prices, profits and production problems was ordered by Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., chairman of the Senate-House Economic Committee. Douglas said impartial hearings would start next week. Douglas is a former University of Chicago economics professor.

Kaiser Holds Back
Republic was the first among the nation's 10 largest producers to disclose pricing plans.

Wheeling Steel Corp., which started the ball rolling a week ago, ranks 11th in production. Lukens Steel Co., which followed on Sunday, ranks 20th, and Pittsburgh Steel 14th.

Kaiser Steel Corp., which held back when other companies advanced prices in April 1962 only to rescind the increases quickly under administration pressure, said it had reached "no conclusion" on what to do this time.

Castro Invited To Visit Russia
HAVANA (AP)—The Cuban government announced today Prime Minister Fidel Castro will visit the Soviet Union this year at the invitation of Premier Khrushchev.

The announcement said Khrushchev had invited Castro to Moscow to discuss "questions referring to relations between the two countries."

Khrushchev's letter reportedly said the Soviet chief wants Castro to see for himself "the great achievements of the Soviet people" and to talk about ways of "strengthening the friendship between the peoples of the Soviet Union and Cuba and other matters of common interest."

Havana Radio said representatives of the Cuban and Soviet governments will arrange the date and itinerary of the visit.

Hundreds Left Homeless As Rains Drench Hawaii
HONOLULU (AP)—Hundreds of Hawaiians were homeless today and at least two persons missing as driving tropical rains continued to drench the island chain, feeding rampaging mountain streams on Oahu and Kauai islands.

Rains have hammered the islands almost steadily for a week. The Weather Bureau forecast continued rains.

An Army lieutenant colonel and a sergeant major from Schofield Barracks vanished when surging waters pulled their cars into an overflowing stream.

Dry Woodlands Blackened By Fires In Eastern U.S.

By The Associated Press
Dry forests, compounded with a drought, have made for hazardous fire conditions in the eastern United States, where thousands of woodland acres have burned.

In Ellsworth Falls, Maine, a grass fire got out of control Monday and destroyed two homes. A family had moved into one of them only a few hours before.

The same day 105 forest fires were reported to the Massachusetts Department of Natural Resources. Forestry officials described the fire danger in eastern and central Massachusetts and Rhode Island as "extreme if not explosive."

Open fires were banned in Rhode Island, where one man died fighting a blaze.

The Weather Bureau said the bulk of New England passed its 25th day Monday without appreciable rain. Little relief was in sight.

In Florida, 154 fires raked 6,000 acres over the weekend. Two blazes north of Panama City blackened 2,500 acres. Forests were under dry, State Forester C. H. Coulter said a prolonged period of exceptional fire danger may be expected.

Kids + Matches = Forest Fires

The best way to prevent forest fires is to take the matches away from the children, says John Chriske, supervisor of the Conservation Department's Escanaba District.

"I wish there was some way to more forcibly impress upon parents the danger to their children, to their homes and other buildings when they allow the children to play with matches and to start grass fires," Chriske said.

Chriske cited statistics to show how carelessness can result in widespread damage by fires.

On Monday in the Escanaba District (Delta, Marquette and the west one-half of Alger counties) there were eight grass and brush fires extinguished by the fire fighters.

"Of these eight fires, six were set by children playing with matches—and the other two by campfires going out of control," said Chriske. "So it was purely carelessness that caused all of them, and the six set by children were mostly in the vicinity of homes, barns or other buildings."

"Since the first reported fire in the district on April 2, there have been a total of 43 that blackened 326 acres. Twenty-nine of the 43 were set by children, 11 started from garbage burner sparks, and two from campfires that spread out of control.

Today's rain is helpful in reducing the fire danger, but a day of wind and sun will bring the hazard back again, said Chriske. The condition will not improve until later this spring when the green grass and leaves shade the ground.

Meanwhile, keep the matches away from the kiddies, advises Supervisor Chriske.

Pleads Guilty To Arson Charge

Mrs. Joan Larson, 32, of Soo Hill, was fined $100 plus court costs of $5 after she pleaded guilty to a charge of arson, when arraigned before Justice A. J. Mortier in Gladstone this morning. She was unable to pay the fine when arraigned and was remanded to the county jail.

The charge against her resulted from a fire, which she admittedly set, that destroyed a lumber pile and home owned by Peter Courrier of Rte. 1, Gladstone, on property adjacent to the Larson home.

Mrs. Larson told State Police that she had intended to burn only the lumber pile, valued at $50, because it was piled in a spot which detracted from her home. She said she had asked that the lumber be stacked on the opposite side of the Courrier home, but her request was disregarded.

Officers said she admitted lighting leaves under the lumber pile about 2:30 p. m. Sunday. The lumber, 1,300 feet of used hemlock, became engulfed in flames and due to the wind and dry conditions the fire spread to the two-room frame house owned by Courrier which was leveled by fire. The total loss in the fire was estimated at $850.

Hearing Handicap Movie Shown For Escanaba Kiwanis

A motion picture, "The Glass Wall", illustrating how persons with loss of hearing may conquer their handicap, was shown at the Escanaba Kiwanis Club meeting Monday. The film was supplied by Mrs. Rene Labre, president of the local Better Hearing and Speech Society, who gave a commentary on the movie and its message. The program was arranged by John Mitchell.

Forrest Henslee, public affairs chairman, announced a preliminary meeting of Kiwanis Pan-cake Day chairmen at the Chamber of Commerce building Wednesday at 5 p. m. The date for the event will be selected and other early arrangements will be discussed.

A. J. Wickley, Kiwanis lieutenant governor for Division 14, will visit the Escanaba club at their meeting next Monday, President Ralph Scheffler announced.

TRENARY — Dr. Harcourt H. Ptolemy, father of Mrs. Thomas W. Falencsar of Grand Rapids and Traverse City, died in Dearborn at the age of 80.

Dr. Ptolemy practiced medicine in Trenary, Alger County, from 1905 to 1921 when he moved to Detroit and continued his practice there.

He graduated from the University of Michigan College of medicine and surgery in 1904. His father, Henry Ptolemy, was also a physician and surgeon, receiving his degree from the Detroit College of Medicine (now Wayne State University) in the first class in medicine of that institution.

In 1906 he married Pearl Trenary, daughter of Levi Trenary, one of the earliest pioneers in Alger county and founder of the town which bears his name. Dr. and Mrs. Ptolemy had been married 53 years at the time of Mrs. Ptolemy's death in 1960.

Dr. Ptolemy was president of the Mathias Township school board while in the Upper Peninsula. During his term of office he initiated and succeeded in establishing one of the earliest consolidated schools in Michigan. Better educational advantages for the underprivileged was one of his interests.

He is survived by a son, William H. Ptolemy of Dearborn, daughters, Mary, Mrs. Thomas W. Falencsar of Grand Rapids and Mrs. Landon M. Kitzmiller and Mrs. Charles S. Fisher, both of Detroit.

Ticket Motorist For M 35 Mishap

Henry Lanaville, 37, of 1715 3rd Ave. N., was ticketed by sheriff's officers for failure to use due care and caution, following an accident at 7:45 p.m. Monday on M-35, near the intersection of the Jaeger Road.

According to officers, Lanaville was the third in a line of cars traveling north on M-35. The first car, driven by Fay M. Flath, 30, of 1111 6th Ave. S., signaled for a left-hand turn and the car behind her slowed as she started to make the turn.

Lanaville then passed the second car and ran into the rear of the Flath vehicle. The Flath car was injured.

Milk Checks In Peninsula Slip

Upper Peninsula milk producers had a loss in income of $36,113.77 in March, compared with the same month a year ago, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Total income from producer milk at test was $394,626, compared with $430,740 a year ago. Average income per producer for 7 days was $143.96, compared with $151.75 in March, 1962.

Production was 7.4 million pounds, compared with 7.8 million in Class 1 (drinking) milk and 3.6 million compared with 2.9 million pounds in Class 2, milk for manufacture. The total 10.7 million pounds for the month was down from 10.8 million a year ago. The percentage sold in the highest price Class 1 market slipped and more went into lower priced Class 2.

Average (Blend) price for milk was $3.54 per hundredweight, compared with $3.834 a year ago. The Class 1, Zone 1 (Escanaba) price was $3.61 compared with $4.04 and the Class 2 price $3.09 compared with $3.13.

Daily average production was 347,190 pounds compared with 348,777 and daily average Class 1 production was 242,107 compared with 256,693.

The number of producers declined from 641 to 619, and those who produce for tank sale rose from 236 to 270, while those who sell their milk in cans dropped from 405 to 349.

The report is one of the darkest for Upper Peninsula milk production in years. It shows production dropping, less milk being sold in the most profitable market (Class 1), the number of producers declining, the price declining and both the individual farmer's and the area's income from milk dropping.

U. P. Centennial Presentations At Sport Show Urged

"An excellent opportunity to bring additional thousands of persons into the Upper Peninsula this summer," says Ken Dorman, executive secretary of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, to Chambers of Commerce in Escanaba, Menominee and Hancock urging them to send representatives to the Northern Wisconsin Sports Show in Green Bay to promote their Centennial celebrations.

The Green Bay show—the fifth annual affair of its kind—will be staged in the Brown County Arena Wednesday through Sunday, April 17-21. The UMTA exhibit, featuring all sections of the Upper Peninsula, will be set up for this event at the arena and delegations from several U. P. Chambers will distribute literature and answer questions about vacations and summer homes in the region.

"Chamber of Commerce and Tourist Association personnel will tell Wisconsin people of the excellent resort facilities and vacation areas to be found in Upper Michigan," Dorman said. "But we believe that the story of the summer festivals to be offered by Escanaba, Menominee County and Hancock in celebration of their 100th birthdays can best be related by people from those communities."

Michigan Week Awards

One of the many good things about Michigan Week is that it causes a stock taking. We count our blessings and this, of course, is a long step toward appreciating them fully. So often in human affairs the good things of life are impressive mostly in retrospect. Michigan Week helps to ease this myopia.

One of the early activities of Michigan Week in the central Upper Peninsula area was the selection of three things to compete for statewide awards.

For state agricultural product of the year, the central U. P. wishes Michigan Week's leaders would pick the Russet Burbank baking potato. Our U. P. soils, climate and farmers would make a good combination for potato culture. It is one of the phases of farming which has lively prospects of growth.

With the trend of the potato industry toward more and more processing (chips, flakes, powders, etc.) and with the trend of some diets away from potatoes, one of the surviving kings of the business is the baking potato. He is served in a Tiffany setting of foil now and is a star of American fine dining which has not been diminished by changing tastes, dietary fads of tuber processing.

The Upper Peninsula can grow fine baking potatoes and increasingly it is devoting acreage to this crop. Selection of the U. P. Russet Burbank would be both an acknowledgement of an outstanding agricultural product of the state and a recognition that would have great promotional value for our bakers, which tend to be regarded as second best to Idaho bakers in our own Michigan markets because Idaho has done such a good job of promoting this crop.

The Gwinn Public Schools were honored with Region 2 nomination for state achievement of the year in the creation of their outdoor laboratory at the new Gwinn High School. The lab covers 50 acres of pine timberland and marsh and development will provide a bog garden, nature trails, arboretum, weather station, tree and plant nursery and pond for biology and conservation studies.

It is a paradox that the joys of outdoor living in the Upper Peninsula, which are a chief attraction of the area, are so little taught that the Upper Michigan Tourist Association finds it necessary to operate a continuing Pays To Know program to instruct service business personnel in the attractions of the Upper Peninsula, so that visitors may be impressed by this means.

Conservation class inquiries have revealed that big city children tend to be better informed on the outdoors than country children who live so intimately in it, because of the greater accent on study. Projects like Gwinn High School's outdoor laboratory should help correct this deficiency.

For state product of the year, Region 2 nominated Norway's LoDal hydraulic truck loader and Lod-A-Matic refuse container system. Brothers Walter, Raymond and Leslie Brisson decided to set up business in Norway after World War II instead of returning to Detroit. From their experimentation with machinery, their LoDal line of self-loading garbage pickup trucks and other products evolved.

The operation has grown steadily and is one of the resources that has enabled Norway to build a new economy to replace one based almost entirely on iron mining, which created the community.

The Michigan Week leaders for Marquette, Alger, Delta, Dickinson and Menominee counties wished they'd been able to make a nomination for valor. They would have given it to the R. J. Enstrom Co. of Menominee, which has developed a helicopter for manufacture. The firm, under the leadership of President Jack Christensen, sold two issues of stock to finance its development of a prototype and persisted with its project after loss of its first chopper and its test pilot.

The resolute character of the enterprise has been an inspiration to the Upper Peninsula. It entered a demanding, expensive field with limited financial resources but unbounded determination, organized Menominee and Marinette in amazing support and is now urging the U. S. Army to buy some of its helicopters for experimental use.

Michigan Week, May 19-26, isn't even here yet and it has already helped the appreciation of Michigan.

Cuba's Loss

Tobacco farmers in Connecticut, who a few years ago were going out of business, are expanding production because of the U. S. ban on trade with Cuba.

Connecticut Valley broadleaf is a not inferior substitute for Cuban tobaccos formerly used as filler in high-quality cigars. By the time existing stocks of Havana tobacco run out, manufacturers expect the consumers' tastes to have become accustomed to the new flavor.

Growers in the South are also stepping up acreage of wrapper leaves. Puerto Rico and other countries are shipping in more tobacco. Non-Cuban tobacco imports in the first 10 months of 1962 were more than double the yearly pre-Castro average.

Much the same story can be told in sugar. Domestic and foreign producers are filling the vacuum left by the disappearance of the Cuban product. An entirely new economic situation is being created.

This should be borne in mind by those who advocate "cutting out the cancer of communism in Cuba" as if it were a simple operation like removing a wart, with no aftereffects.

Suppose Castro were to vanish? Who would buy Cuba's sugar and tobacco? And if Cuba regained her U. S. market, what about those who are now building a vested interest in them?

Getting rid of the Communists in Cuba looks more and more like major surgery, with far-reaching postoperative effects.

Good Project

Michigan United Conservation Clubs Executive Director James L. Rouman is working with Conservation Department officials and representatives of the Celotex Corp. in attempting to secure for the people of this state the area surrounding Laughing Whitefish Falls in Alger County.

The area of some 800 acres includes a great gorge leading to the falls. The gorge, the falls, the virgin hardwoods are described as "a jewel of a scenic area," precious for its rocky formations, natural beauty and natural history value.

Celotex Corp. holds title to the land now, and is willing to swap it for state-owned timber land in the Baraga State Forest. Negotiations are underway.

"We must be alert to opportunities to secure land in good recreation areas," Rouman said. "The Laughing Whitefish Falls area could become a prime tourist attraction for the Upper Peninsula."

The project is both heartening in its promise to add another attraction for Upper Peninsula visitors and in its indication that the Upper Peninsula, under guidance of leaders like Jim Rouman, is acting to develop its resources for their best usage. That waterfalls should be in commercial forest land and not fully available to the public isn't desirable.

The Snowman Who Won't Go Away

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON — (N E A) — Red Cross chapters get their March floods in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, more serious floods in Virginia, Kentucky and West Virginia, tornadoes in Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee—all these took 26 lives, injured nearly 1,000, destroyed 250 homes, damaged 22,000 others and affected 26,000 families—15,000 of which have registered for disaster relief from the American Red Cross.

Adding up the losses in this manner gives the appearance of a major disaster. But with the exception of those on tributaries of the Cumberland and Monongahela in Kentucky and the Virginia, the floods were relatively small.

Preliminary estimates put damage in the tri-state area at $37 million. Red Cross relief will be about $3.7 million, or about 10 per cent of the total, according to Robert C. Edison, director of disaster services. This is about one-third of the $10 million Red Cross budgets annually for disaster relief.

In addition, the organization has a $20 million revolving reserve fund for major disaster years like 1955. East coast hurricanes and the northern California-Oregon floods of that year required disaster relief of $26 million.

Red Cross gets a nation-wide response in contributions after the big disasters. But smaller disasters create a demand for relief services that are important but not as well publicized.

This year's goal is $95 million. Last year a record $87 million was raised.

About 1,200 of the 3,600 local Red Cross chapters get their money through United Fund drives. The other 2,400 depend on local campaigns, in which giving is stimulated by disaster news.

The greater part of relief work in a disaster area is done by state and local organizations—national guard, state and city police, firemen, veterans' organizations, churches, schools, lodges, service clubs and individual volunteers.

But in what has become almost a standard operation more or less taken for granted, Red Cross chapters have become the focal points around which community resources can be mobilized. Nation Red Cross headquarters moves into a disaster area principally to provide long term relief.

It will finance the rebuilding and repair of homes, replacement of furnishings swept away by flood or destroyed by fire or tornado. It will pay emergency doctor bills and meet other expenses beyond the resources of the family to bridge its disaster gap.

What most people do not realize and find it difficult to understand is that this Red Cross assistance is an outright grant.

The big loss in the Kentucky-Virginia flood area was to roads, bridges and public works which will have to be rebuilt by state and local governments. This damage is now being surveyed.

Where losses are beyond the resources of state and local governments to cover the cost, the federal government moves in with relief and reconstruction work, too. It operates under the Federal Disaster Act of 1950, with efforts of all government agencies co-ordinated by the Office of Emergency Planning.

In the Kentucky - Virginia floods, Department of Agriculture supplied more than 300,000 pounds of food—mostly canned meats, peanut butter, cheese, dried beans and dried milk from school lunch and surplus stocks. Bureau of Public Roads and Army Corps of Engineers help on reconstruction.

Area Redevelopment Community Facilities and Small Business Administration are making loans for damages to homes and business establishments or factories for losses not covered by insurance.

Harlan, Hazard and Pikeville, Ky., Logan and Williamson, W. Va., were the hardest hit communities. These are coal mining centers and depressed areas to begin with, so the disaster was felt harder.

This same area was hit by a flood in 1957. But the people whose houses were destroyed or damaged in that disaster went right back to their former homesites along the mountain streams—mostly because they had no place else to go.

Businessmen, Labor Are Accused Of Decadence

ANN ARBOR — The enemy within the gates poses as serious a threat to the American way of life as the enemy without, a retired justice of the U. S. Supreme Court declared here.

A breakdown in morality—by labor, by business, and by political leaders—looms as ominous as the boasts by foreign powers that they intend to "bury" us, Charles E. Whittaker asserted.

"Our tranquility, freedom and way of life has many times been threatened in the past, both from without and from within, but never, until now at least, from both sources at one time," he told the University of Michigan Law School.

We recent assertions from abroad that our economic system is decadent and soon will fall of its own weight, he said. "But we cannot deny, and should not attempt to deny, that we are beset by vexing internal economic problems, for only if we openly recognize their existence can we act collectively to solve them."

Justice Whittaker turned to the economic problems: unemployment, spiralling prices, the increasing U. S. difficulty of competing price-wise in world markets.

The Administration is attempting to solve these difficulties in part, he continued, by "the simulant of a planned deficit of about $10 million per year in our national budget through, what would appear to be, the inconsistent steps of an increase in federal spending and, at the same time, a reduction of income taxes."

Labor Costs Rise

But, he said, any relief will be only stopgap until we come to grips with the "core of the problem—which is our high and annually increasing labor costs."

"We have heard no suggestion," he went on, "that our labor costs be reduced or even held at present levels."

"Indeed, the national unions at their recent Miami convention have announced, without government protest, an impending campaign for even higher wages and, under the pretense of spreading the work to create more jobs, have announced a campaign to reduce the 40-hour week to a 35-hour week, but without reducing the weekly pay of the workers—this would constitute a wage increase of 1/3 or 12 1/2 per cent and thus make it even more impossible for our industry to sell its excess production at world prices."

"The chips are down and the stakes are high, yet we are preoccupied with constant demands for higher wages, a shorter working day and week, with fringe benefits and early retirement. We tolerate ruinous work stoppages, slow-downs and disruptions at our military and industrial plants whose production is vital in our race for the instruments of survival, while those avowedly out to 'bury' us work around the clock."

But, continued the retired supreme court justice, all abuses are not on the part of labor and unions. There is also a tendency on the part of business executives to use their positions to promote their own economic interests.

Executives of publicly-owned corporations are paid "excessive salaries," he charged. They have developed a system of pyramiding their income through stock options, retirement benefits, liberal profit sharing and lastly, the "novel and ingenious device of the dividend credit."

We are faced with the "age-old hazard of executive capture of publicly-owned corporations," he warned.

Justice Whittaker turned to the political field where he charged members of the Congress with contributing to the general breakdown in morality through their practice of nepotism.

"We see congressmen with relatives on the public payroll, who draw salaries of $8,000 to $18,000 a year, and do nothing," he declared.

"While Congress has no rule against nepotism, morality is not created by rule. It is only enforced by rule."

"If these members of the Congress did covertly what they do overtly in respect to their practices of nepotism and the taking of international jaunts at public expense, and were caught and exposed, there would be a great scandal," he said.

"But it seems if they do the same thing openly, they not only ally scandal but live in honor."

Paraphrasing Admiral Rickover, Justice Whittaker said that "Life without effort appears to be our national goal."

"If anything is clear," he declared, "it is that we must abandon pursuit of the easy life, and all hope of Utopia in life on this earth, and get down seriously to the business of protecting our freedom and way of life, as did our fathers—remembering that 'God helps those who (properly) help themselves.'"

"THANK YOU"

We wish publicly to express our sincere thanks to each of the many residents of Escanaba who sent in names of Escanabans residing in the Chicago area for mailing invitations to "Escanaba Night". So many letters and notes came from friends and acquaintances that it was virtually impossible to acknowledge them all and thank each correspondent personally.

Therefore, in behalf of our host, the Swedish Engineer's Society of Chicago, I wish to acknowledge the many fine letters sent to us by the good people of Escanaba, and to thank each of the writers for the fine cooperation. Without this help, "Escanaba Night" would not have been the successful event that it was. Thankfully yours,

Centennial Look:

City's Best Foot Being Put Ahead

Escanaba is polishing up the handle on the big front door for its Centennial year, with projects under way or scheduled to make the city's good appearance even better in 1963, said City Manager George Harvey.

Under the supervision of Kenneth Touthack, public works department superintendent, the Karas Memorial Bandshell has been freshly painted; Ludington Park is receiving its annual spring be completed. Last year more than 3,600 visitors, many from other states, registered at the Museum. Escanaba's streets have been receiving their spring cleaning. The sweeper has made a number of trips and the streets now lack only a "good rain" to complete the freshening.

A project of interest to residents and visitors alike will be the placing of an information sign near the Municipal Dock, picturing and telling the story of the ill-fated steamer Nahant, which burned and sank off the north side of Sand Point. The bulk of the Nahant rests on the bottom, object of curiosity to skin divers.

Another Centennial project of the Centennial Corp., is the establishing of a headquarters in an American Timber Homes building, moved today to the corner of Ludington and 10th St. The building is a loan from John Walbridge and American Timber Homes.

clean-up; and play and picnic equipment is being returned there for the season.

The Delta County Historical Museum building at Sand Point, the center of much research activity for the Centennial, will be improved this spring, said Touthack. The city owns the building and leases it to the Historical Society.

Cracked portions of the building's stucco finish will be repaired and the structure will be painted; the grounds which were graded last year will be landscaped this spring; and the parking lot will

FORD GALAXIE 500 XL SPORTS HARDTOP

YOU'LL KNOW WHY SHE DOESN'T FEEL THE BUMPS...WHEN YOU TEST-DRIVE FORD'S NEW $10,000,000 RIDE

The 1963 Ford gives you a ride every bit as smooth as cars costing hundreds more, and for two reasons: a revolutionary new suspension system . . . and added road-hugging weight.

It took ten million dollars to develop the new Ford ride. We designed a revolutionary new suspension system for the '63 Ford. Where ordinary suspensions move only up and down to absorb road shock, the Ford suspension moves backward as well. In this double-action suspension system, coil springs up front and leaf springs in the rear combine to give you firmness in cornering and a special smoothness over the road.

We added weight, strength and stability. The new Ford is now actually hundreds of pounds more car than any other car in its class. This remarkable weight advantage is in the suspension, frame, and body. And, as you know, this added weight means a more stable ride.

But a solid, road-smoothing ride is only part of Ford's total performance story for 1963. Look how Ford swept the field this year in the grueling Daytona, Riverside and Atlanta 500's and in the demanding Pure Oil Performance Trials. Only a car with total performance—the best combination of strength, balance, precision control, braking power and road-clinging suspension—could roll up so many wins.

Before you buy any new car, test-drive a Super Torque Ford. If you haven't driven one lately, you can't really know what a new Ford is like. Make this important discovery—if it's built by Ford, it's built for performance . . . total performance.

Springtime is captured for the palate in banana chiffon mold, with orange-lemon accent.

Taste Of Spring

By GAYNOR MADDON

You'll welcome this light dessert for spring. The unique flavor of bananas is heightened with orange and lemon slices. Egg whites and gelatin give the dessert airiness and help set the mold.

Despite its appeal, an average serving of this Banana Chiffon Mold adds up to only 101 calories. (A medium banana supplies only 88 calories.)

Banana Chiffon Mold

(6 servings)

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
6 tablespoons cold water
1 cup hot orange juice
1 cup lemon juice
1/4 cup sugar
1 cup mashed banana (2-3)
3 egg whites
1/4 teaspoon salt
Banana slices
Soften gelatin in cold water for 5 minutes then dissolve in hot orange juice. Add sugar and lemon juice, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Chill mixture until slightly thickened, about the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Add mashed banana. Beat until foamy and well blended. Add salt to egg whites, beat until stiff, fold into banana-gelatin mixture. Pour into a 1 1/2 quart mold; chill until firm. Unmold on serving plate and garnish with banana slices.

Ann Landers

No Harm In Beard?

Dear Ann Landers: I am almost 18 years old and I want to keep my beard. My mother says "Get rid of it or else." She can give me no other reason except that she doesn't like it.

Parents have the power to make kids do certain things. But do they have the RIGHT? Is a family a dictatorship where the kids have no liberties?

Many famous men have had beards and it didn't do them any harm. Take for example Lincoln, Shaw, Hemmingway, Mitch Miller and The Smith Brothers. Please don't tell me to wait until I am famous. This line is so worn-out I am sick of hearing it.

I admit I like my beard because it makes me different. So what's wrong with that? Must we all be Orwellian conformists? What would happen to progress if everybody did only what had been done before him? Help, Please—Mr. Z.

Dear Mr. Z: I've seen a few bearded gentlemen who look very distinguished. But about 95 per cent of the fur-bearing males look as if they need a bath and some flea powder.

What is so special about the "individualism" of a beard? It doesn't take either brains or talent to grow hair. If this is the best you can do to stand out from the crowd I feel sorry for you. (P. S. How are you fixed for blades, Buddy Boy?)

Dear Ann Landers: Two years ago I fell in love. Shad was separated from his wife and asked me to marry him when was legally free. I said yes.

December 1st he got his divorce. I wanted a ring for Christmas but was disappointed. When I asked him to set a date he said, "New Year's Day." Then he changed it to "the need of January." I was all set when he asked me to postpone it until Valentine's Day because he didn't feel well. A week before Valentine's Day he said St. Patrick's Day would be great because his mother was Irish.

I was just about to phone the family when he said we'd better wait until May because he has some bills he wants to get out of the way.

My birthday is next month and he knows I want a ring more than anything in the world, but instead he is giving me an expensive set of golf clubs. I'm getting frustrated and madder by the day. Please tell me what you think of all this. I am—NOT PERCOLATING

Dear Not: Get with it, Honey. This man doesn't want to marry you. He wants to play golf with you.

Dear Ann: I have a friend who must have a pipe line to another world and a full-time spy-system in this one. If there was a divorce on the moon she'd have the word first.

I like to know what is happening in town as well as the next person but I resent the way she begins every conversation with, "This is strictly between us. Promise me you won't breathe it to a soul?" Why does she make me promise I won't say anything when she tells half the town?

I consider this an attack on my integrity. Please tell me how to cope with the situation without losing her friendship—HONOR BRIGHT

Dear Honor: "Promise you won't breathe a word" is a phrase used to heighten interest and make the person feel he's getting in on a fresh dirt.

If you actually resent it, just say, "No, I don't promise." She

Since Monday morning, the 275 men and 93 women contestants have been reporting at the processing center in an oceanfront hotel getting travel papers cleared, undergoing medical tests and receiving official team apparel.

In the last Pan-Am games, at Chicago in 1959, the United States forces grabbed 120 first places of a possible 163, and took 73 seconds and 53 thirds in 25 sports.

At Sao Paulo, the American medal-capturing pace is destined to slacken, mainly because the Pan-Am organizing committee has set a two entry limit for each individual event in the premier sports of track and swimming, instead of three.

Only one U.S. defending champion returns in track, hammer thrower Al Hall. But while lacking the luster of the squad America will send to the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo, this group again has the potency to win as it pleases at Pacaembu Stadium.

J. Lyman Bingham, executive director of the U.S. Olympic Committee, said he saw no imprint of the long-standing AAU-NCAA feud in the caliber of this nation's Pan-American squad.

"We may not have the best squad possible, but it certainly is a strong one," said Bingham. "We have lost a number of collegiate performers, but mainly because of classroom pressures."

Dells Keglers Set New U. P. Tourney Record Of 3,067

GLADSTONE—Their all-time Upper Peninsula Men's bowling tournament record smashed over the weekend by a Marquette crew of pin-wreckers, the Dells Supper Club keglers responded in championship fashion here Monday night.

They smashed out a 3,067 team total at the Midway alleys for the highest score in the recorded history of the 53 year old tournament.

The Dells team owned the U. P. tournament record of 3,028, set in 1959 at Marquette, until the Clifton Bar belted out a 3,041 here in weekend action.

When the Dells keg artists took the lanes Monday night before a large crowd of rooters, they wasted no time getting down to the task at hand. They toppled

1,100 pins in their first game for a fabulous start. In their second game they combined for a 979 total and they bettered that with a 988 finale to established the new Upper Peninsula record.

Broken down, the Dells' 3,067 total represents an average series of 613 for the five members of the team.

Ray Wahowiak led the maple assault with a 649 on games of 238, 215 and 196. Charley Lundmark followed with a 644 on games of 244, 199 and 201. Tony Gillis of double 300 fame this season, rapped out a 630 with a 257 singleton. Ed Gravelle barreled a 617 with three straight 200-plus efforts and Larry Cantin hit a 527 with a 196 highlight.

The Dells bowlers will switch to their doubles and singles competition on Wednesday night and they have some lofty targets on which to set their sights.

Mel Hirvonen of Marquette is the tournament's singles leader with a 705 series and holds down first place in all events with a 1,987 total. Con Lempiess and Everett Senobe of Marquette are at the top of the doubles list with 1,249 pins.

Individual leaders in the minor division are the Night Owls of Escanaba with 2,845 in the team event, Ray Kaunisto and Art Roo of Sault Ste. Marie in the doubles with 1,181, Mark Willey Jr. of Ishpeming in the singles with 666 and Wilfred Barribeau of Oconto in all events with 1,829.

Softball Meet Set Wednesday

The board of directors and officers of the Escanaba Softball Assn., will meet Wednesday at 7 p. m., at the Chamber of Commerce.

Plans for the coming season will be made, it was announced by Bill Lancoeur, president of the association.

Twins' Slugger To Be Benched

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Harmon Killebrew's twisted right knee, which the muscled slugger admits "doesn't seem to be getting any better," Monday forced him to the bench for an indefinite period.

The decision to rest Killebrew until the knee no longer adversely affects his play was made by the Minnesota Twins brass after they learned it was again filled with fluid.

The knee was drained April 4 at Orlando, Fla., before the Twins headed north for the opening of the season.

Killebrew wrenched the knee March 7 at Orlando during spring training when he tried to make a sharp turn and hit some loose dirt.

Loss of Killebrew, for at least a week and most likely longer, is a severe blow to Minnesota's hopes for a good start in the American League pennant race.

The Twins have lost four of their first five games, with Killebrew hitting a meager .105. He had two hits, a home run and single, in 19 times at bat, had struck out seven times and batted in two runs.

Last year Killebrew led the American League in home runs with 48, runs batted in with 126, and strikeouts with a record total of 142.

Big Guns Fizzle In Hockey Series

DETROIT (AP)—The superstars of the Toronto Maple Leafs and the Detroit Red Wings—Frank Mahovlich and Gordie Howe—have been duds in the Stanley Cup finals.

With the fourth game of the series tonight, Mahovlich, Toronto's famed Big M, has yet to score or even assist on a goal. Howe, Detroit's National Hockey League scoring champion and normally the commanding figure on the ice, has failed to dominate a single game although he has two goals and an assist in the series.

The Leafs take a 2-1 lead in the best-of-7 series into tonight's game at Detroit's Olympia Stadium. The fifth game will be Thursday at Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto.

"Mahovlich has been hurt and before that he had the flu," said Coach Punch Imlach after the Leafs' practice session Monday. "This has to be the reason he hasn't scored at all in the playoffs. But he's skating okay now."

Mahovlich suffered a strained and bruised knee in the first game of the series last Tuesday. Before that he was held to a single assist in the five games the Leafs needed to eliminate Montreal in the semifinals.

Howe caught the flu between the first and second games at Tor-

Central Scores Pair Of Victories

CARBONDALE, Ill. (AP)—Chuck Gronda and Fred Muntin picked up the victories Monday as Central Michigan won a double-header from Southern Illinois, 8-1, 8-4.

CMU scored seven runs in the top of the tenth inning of the opener and came back to take an early 7-0 lead in the nightcap.

CMU's Gary Harrington led all batters in the twin bill with five hits and two runs batted in.

Track People Still Battling

About Time For MacArthur To Make Return In Track

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It may be time for Gen. Douglas MacArthur to make another of his famous returns.

The situation is a few degrees less important than his most celebrated return to the Philippines, but this one has its points.

The Hatfields and the Coys of track and field are at it again, if indeed they ever stopped fighting.

That would be the National Amateur Athletic Union and the U.S. Track and Field Federation.

The AAU, according to the Federation, has no quarrel as to who runs track in this country, as long as it is the AAU.

The AAU has an identical thought about the USTFF.

Gen. MacArthur, who will recall, at President Kennedy's request got the fighting factions together last winter.

The main thing the general demanded was that they quit fighting like small kids, anyhow until after the 1964 Olympic Games.

College athletes faced possible loss of eligibility if they competed in a meet not sanctioned by the USTFF. Post-college athletes faced the same fate if they competed in a meet not blessed by

Owens Files Suit Against Owners

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Ex-San Francisco 49er R. C. (Alley Oop) Owens brought his former employers before the California Industrial Accident Commission Monday.

He asked financial compensation for injuries he says he suffered while playing for them during the 1960-61 seasons.

Robert Maclean, attorney for the two insurance companies covering the San Francisco team, denied Owens' claim of impaired ability.

Owens, 28, told commission referee Zero Shapero he suffered a shoulder injury twice and a "hyperextended knee" once.

Weeb Ewbank

Ewbank Is Named New York Coach; Team Called Jets

NEW YORK (AP)—"I've seen sicker cows than this get well," said Weeb Ewbank of his new charges, the New York Jets—nee Titans—of the American Football League.

Ewbank, who turned a "sick cow" into a championship team at Baltimore and then was fired after a nine-year stay, became the coach and general manager of the re-named Jets Monday. The announcement was a formality for the story had leaked into the papers days earlier.

The new owners of the Jets, a five-man group headed by Sonny Weblin, president of Music Corporation of America and a director of Monmouth Race Track, are attempting to wipe out the last reminder of the sad sack Titans. They bought the bankrupt club from Harry Wisner last month for $1 million. The signing of Ewbank to a three-year contract for a reported $100,000 was their first big move.

Ewbank, a chunky man of 55 years with an enthusiastic outlook on life, knows he faces many problems. He is aware that the old owners did not sign a single draft choice last fall. He also knows the club had a 5-9 record and finished last in its division.

The Colts fired Ewbank in January and replaced him with Don Shula. Weeb had two years to go on a contract reported to call for $30,000 per. He and owner Carroll Rosenbloom of the Colts agree they made an "amicable solution to their problems."

Ewbank said George Sauer, general manager of the Titans last year, was out looking for talent. He said he would interview candidates for assistant coaching jobs and hoped to line up a staff soon. Bulldog Turner, head coach in 1962, will be paid off. He has one year remaining on his contract.

"I hope this will be my last move," said Ewbank. "I hope to start a new era for the AFL here."

College Coach Eyes Piston Job

DETROIT (AP)—Frank McGuire, whose North Carolina National Collegiate championship team was unbeaten in 32 games in 1957, is open to any offer to coach the Detroit Pistons in the National Basketball Association.

From McGuire, who also once coached at St. John's, N.Y., came an inviting word about the vacancy left when Dick McGuire, no relation to Frank, resigned as Pistons head coach Monday.

Frank McGuire said: "I'm open to any offer and would gladly listen to the Pistons' offer."

This fits right in with the word of welcome to prospective coaching talent from Pistons' owner Fred Zollner. He said: "The head coaching job is open to all candidates."

McGuire said at his home in Chap Hill, N.C., that he has not been approached by the Pistons.

Brave Homer Does It

Mets Lose Sixth Straight Start In Last Of 9th

By The Associated Press

The New York Mets lost again, but there's no PANIC! It's more like CINAP.

There's no other way to spell it out for a team that is continually moving backward.

The Mets moved forward for 8-2-3 innings plus two strikes Monday, then Lee Maye shoved them backward by shoving his bat in front of a fat pitch for a two-run homer that gave Milwaukee a 4-3 victory in the only game played in the majors.

From 72-year-old Casey Stengel, the grizzled, backward-speaking manager, to 18-year-old Ed Kranepool, the rookie outfielder, the loss was a morale-mauler, bringing back the memory of last year's dismal start that never ended.

Against the Braves, the Mets massed their heaviest artillery and boomed out 12 hits, they committed only one error, they led going into the ninth, they were one strike away from victory when Tracy Stallard fired to Maye.

The defeat left the Mets with an 0-6 record, dropping them 4½ games back of the National League leaders. They are, naturally and uncomfortably, situated in the cellar.

Shutout for six innings by Bob Shaw, the Mets struck back in the seventh — and everything worked.

In the eighth, the Mets snapped the tie on singles by Kranepool and Duke Snider, a walk to Jim Hickman and a sacrifice fly by Harkness.

Unfortunately they had to play the ninth. Stallard, working in relief of starter Al Jackson, got Ed Mathews and Joe Torre to open the inning. One out to go. Stallard got ahead of Maye 1-2. One strike to go.

Then Maye struck. The Mets will try again tonight at Cincinnati.

National League champion San Francisco finally gets to play its home opener, against Houston, and the Los Angeles Dodgers raise the curtain in their own park against the Chicago Cubs. Pittsburgh will be at St. Louis and Philadelphia at Milwaukee on a full schedule.

In the American League, Chicago and Boston hold their home openers, the White Sox meeting Kansas City and the Red Sox taking on Baltimore. Detroit will be at New York, Los Angeles at Minnesota and Washington at Cleveland.

Little League Tryout Slated For Wednesday

The first Little League baseball tryouts will be held Wednesday at Royce Park at 6:30 p. m., for 12-year-old candidates who have registered for the program.

Managers will be in charge of the tryouts, which will continue for other age groups as the weather continues to warm.

The Wednesday tryout is for 12-year-old boys who have registered and want to join the Little League program here this season. This is Escanaba's 13th year in Little League.

Irish, Fox Win In Table Tennis

Two champions were crowned in the city table tennis tournament which opened at Club 314 Monday night.

In the Boys Juvenile division, Bob Irish won the championship by defeating Dick Niemi in the finals in three straight games 21-14, 21-13, 21-15. In gaining the finals Irish won over Mike O'Brien, 21-6, 21-11; Pat Dube, 21-3, 21-7; Terry Dufour, 21-19, 21-13. Niemi defeated Tom Anzalone 21-16, 15-21, 21-19; Mike Dube, 21-18, 21-23, 21-11 to gain the finals. In the play-off for third place, Dufour defeated Dube 21-14. Other players in the division were Stanley LeMay, Dale Thibodeau, Kevin Curran, John Vader, John Vardigan, Jerry Cole, Mac Anderson, Tom Plouff and Bill Peltier.

The Mens Open division was a battle in final play with Gordon Fox defeating Tom McKie in the best three out of five games to take the championship. Fox opened strong, sweeping the first two games 21-18, 25-23. McKie took the next two games 21-16, 21-16 to even the match. In the deciding game Fox outlasted McKie 21-16. In gaining the finals Fox won over Jerry Sprague 21-16, 21-13; Tom Sprague, 21-18, 21-13. McKie defeated Dick Dubord and Dean Preaseau, 21-16, 21-16. Sprague won over Preaseau in the playoff for third place 21-16.

A trophy was presented to the first place winner in each division with second, third and fourth place winners receiving medals.

Tonight at 6:30 tournament play will continue at Club 314 for girls in the open division and boys in the junior division.

Two M Boys Missing But Yankees Strong

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris weren't scheduled to play, but manager Bob Scheffing said he was more worried about two other Yankees as the Detroit Tigers opened a two-game series with New York today.

"Tony Kubek and Bobby Richardson are the guys who really kill you," said Scheffing.

The key men in the Yankees' double play combination have been outstanding in the first week of the season and have played a big role in New York's rush into its usual spot in the standings—first place.

They teamed up for a game-ending double play at a Kansas City last week after the A's had loaded the bases with one out in the last of the ninth. The unusual thing about the play was that the final out was made at third base as Richardson decided to try a get Haywood Sullivan going into third rather than the fleet Jose Tartabull springing toward first.

Sunday, Richardson killed off Baltimore's last chance when he flipped the ball backhanded to Kubek—after racing behind second—to start another double play.

Scheffing, who says he knows Maris is injured because he saw it happen, says he won't believe Mantle is out until he sees him sitting in the dugout when the national anthem is played.

"I've seen him get better too many times when we show up," Scheffing said.

Maris has a pulled hamstring muscle in his leg. He was injured when he made a sensational catch against the Tigers in Lakeland, Fla. last April 1.

Mantle has a pulled muscle in his abdomen. He left the game Saturday in the first inning and sat out all of Sunday's game.

Yankees Are Villains

Fans Love Mets As Comic Relief

By BILL McCORMICK
NEW YORK—(NEA) — New York has the most dependable baseball teams in the major leagues.

And the most inconsistent fans. The heroic Yankees, who usually can be relied upon to win at least the American League pennant, are hissable villains to a surprising number.

The National League's Metropolitan Home for Foundlings and the Aged is almost sure pop to finish last in everything—and an even more surprising number cherish a deep affection for the comic relief outfit in the drama that is the national pastime.

The love of the masses for the Mets has grown even more intense this year—and with good reason. Casey Stengel's stout-hearted henchmen, who frightened the faithful by winning 15 out of 27 exhibition games, pulled themselves together once the season started.

They even made an error on the very first play.

This prompted a loyal adherent to declare, "Maybe their biggest error was in starting the season at all," and a sports writer to charge, "The umpire used unfair tactics—he shouted, 'Play ball!'" After the Mets had gone scoreless for 19 innings, a comedian who transplanted his loyalty from the old Brooklyn Dodgers to the new Bums, declared, "All I can root for now is for somebody to get to third."

Sitting in the bleachers at the Polo Grounds, where the Mets are holding forth in their home games until the new Shea Stadium is opened for business on Long Island, the aura of adoration is overwhelming.

"Lookit that Eddie Kranepool," said a worshipper, pointing to a big boy in the batting circle.

The 18-year-old $85,000 bonus outfielder who is the apple knocker of Stengel's eye had his eyes closed against the sun as he waited his turn.

"Noives of steel. He's sound asleep," said the fan. "He ain't asleep," corrected another idolizer. "He's a smart kid. He's got his eyes closed so he won't pick up bad habits watching them other guys."

Inevitably Casey Stengel comes charging out the dugout to the pitcher's mound.

"He's too old for that exertion," said an adherent. "We should start a collection to buy him one of those little electric carts golfers use."

"Old Case wouldn't like that," a knowing fan countered. "When he gets too feeble to walk out to the pitcher, he's gonna be carried piggy-back on the shoulders of the girl who wins the beauty contest his beer sponsors run."

Runnersup Dot Golf Tourney

PINEHURST, N.C., (AP) — There's the makings of an exclusive golfing society from the ranks of the 16 survivors of opening play who answered the start-up call today in the second round of the North and South Women's Amateur Championship.

Four of them were runnersup for the national amateur title—one, on two occasions.

Mrs. Helen Sigel Wilson of Gladwyne, Pa., final loser here last year to Clifford Ann Creed, now a professional, went to the U.S. finals twice. She lost to Betty Hicks in 1941 and seven years later to Grace Lenzky.

In 1955, at Charlotten Jane Nelson, now Mrs. Jason Weiss of Indianapolis, lost the last match to Pat Leser. In 1960 Jean Ashley of Chanute, Kan., bowed to Joanne Gunderson in the championship match and two years ago Phyllis (Tish) Preuss of Pompano Beach, Fla., bowed to Anne Quast Decker.

These four final losers are among the top threats here, along with Mrs. Philip Cudone of West Caldwell, N.J., North and South winner five years ago and only ex-champion in the field, last year's losing semifinalists, Marge Burns of Greensboro, N.C., and Mrs. John Dyson of Sugarloaf, Pa., and a Florida winter circuit winner this year, Nancy Roth of Hollywood, Fla.

Ford And UAW Set Up Pay Study

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers Union are expected to agree today to establish a joint study committee to smooth the way for 1964 contract bargaining.

General Motors Corp. and the UAW set up such a committee Monday, and the union is scheduled to take its proposal at meetings with American Motors Corp. and Chrysler Corp. later.

No broad pre-bargaining exploration has been tried in the industry before.

Saying he thought joint committees "accomplish much good," Henry Ford II, chairman of the nation's No. 2 automaker, told a reporter last week:

"As a matter of fact, I had talked to our people about doing just what (UAW President) Walter Reuther suggested. It will give us a chance to explore the technical factors that get distorted in the heat of negotiations. If we know the basic facts, there are no arguments and we can negotiate more quickly and sanely."

Vice president Edward L. Cushman of AMC said his company welcomed the idea.

Chrysler Earns $3.98 Per Share In First Quarter

CENTER LINE (AP) — President Lynn A. Townsend told a Chrysler Corp. annual meeting today the company earned $36.2 million, or $3.98 per share in the first quarter of 1963. This compared with $1.3 million or 14 cents a share a year ago.

Earnings were second only to the record first quarter of 1957 when Chrysler showed a profit of $46.5 million. Sales, however, were considerably below the 1957 figure, $750 million this year against $1.15 billion.

Townsend disclosed the financial report prior to his general address to the annual meeting where shareholders were to approve a two-for-one stock split.

Air Force Aids Creation Of New U.P. Goose Colony

By KENNETH S. LOWE

An Air Force helicopter and its three-man crew has given a big assist to a project designed to improve goose hunting in the Upper Peninsula.

Capt. Pasco Parker, Capt. Lloyd Bergstrom and Sgt. Basil Grey, all of Kincheloe Air Force Base, operated a helicopter that staged a "gooselift" in the swampy vastness of the eastern Upper Peninsula.

The whirly bird made three hops into a wild and remote marshland to carry in 62 Canadian geese from the Conservation Department's game farm at downtown Mason.

The cargo consisted of 12 three-year-old geese (six pairs) and 50 two-year-old birds.

Merrill W. Petoskey, Lansing, waterfowl specialist for the department, supervised the release of the geese and said the department hopes the goose transfer will result in establishment of a new colony of honkers in the Northern Peninsula.

It is almost certain that the six pairs of three-year-olds will nest. Biologists expect about 40 per cent of the two-year-old birds also will rear young this year. Birds hatched in the Upper Peninsula this year are expected to return to the U.P. next spring, following the tradition of honkers to return to their native area.

If the geese actually do return, it would mark the beginning of a new goose colony and might provide additional hunting for Upper Peninsula sportsmen in a few years. At present, the only large goose colony in the Upper Peninsula is at the Seney National Wildlife Refuge.

The geese released this week were wing-clipped to prevent them from flying elsewhere to nest. However, they will grow new flight feathers after the summer moult and will be able to migrate south in the fall.

Petoskey and Robert Strong, Sault Ste. Marie, habitat biologist for the department, spread 200 pounds of shelled corn at the release site to help tide the geese over during their transition period. But the geese quickly settled comfortably in the open water and began probing for natural food.

Petoskey said he hopes the geese were "planted" in time to attract some migratory honkers to take up residence with them in the new goose marsh.

Rusch To Head Tax Commission

The Delta County Tax Allocation Commission elected George Rusch as their chairman when they held their organizational meeting in the County Building Monday afternoon.

Rusch is a member of the commission as a representative of the Escanaba City Council.

Other members of the tax commission include: Ann S. Villeneuve, county treasurer; Charles Sedenquist of Rte. 1, Escanaba, co-chairman of the Finance Committee of the Delta County Board of Supervisors; Hagle Quarstrom, county superintendent of schools; Victor Groos of Wells, citizen at large; and E. G. Bennett, a member of the Escanaba Area School Board.

The board, during its meeting yesterday, accepted budgets from the various township and school districts. Their next meeting, for study of the budget requests, will be held on April 29 at 7:30 p. m.

After this meeting a statutory meeting will be held on the third Monday in May.

ply when he challenged the vessel. He said it might have been a fishing boat.

The hearing recessed briefly while the widows, children and parents of the victims of the disaster gathered with some 5,000 others for memorial services at the shipyard.

A three-foot floral reproduction of the Thresher was dropped from an Air Force plane at the approximate spot at sea where the submarine disappeared.

Services were also held at the U.S. submarine base at Groton.

Flint Lawyers And Judge Indicted In Bankruptcy Case

BAY CITY (AP) — A Genesee County justice of the peace and a group of other persons, including two Flint attorneys, were accused in a federal grand jury indictment today of criminal conspiracy to violate bankruptcy law.

A 17-member grand jury returned the indictment to U.S. District Judge Stephen Roth in connection with operations of Norm Wilson Sales of Flint, a wholesale home building materials company.

Justice Charles P. Sharpe was among those named defendants in the three-count indictment.

Co-defendants include attorneys John J. Hermann and William J. Priests, both of Flint, and Harold C. Goebel and Frank X. Larash Jr., Bad Axe businessmen.

Canadian Vessel First In Seaway

MONTREAL (AP) — The Canadian lake vessel Montrealais Monday became the first ship of the new season to enter the St. Lawrence Seaway, opening for its fifth season, which some shipping officials expect to be its busiest.

The 26,000-ton ship, built especially for the seaway, passed through the St. Lambert Lock at 8:25 a.m., heading for the Ontario lakehead to pick up a cargo of grain.

On her heels was the tiny lake vessel Soreldoc.

The German freighter Polaris, first ocean ship to enter the seaway, followed the Soreldoc. She is bound for Toronto.

group which did this but rather an individual who is sick mentally."

The statue, constructed by Gino Testaguzzi of Orion Township, was donated to the church four years ago by the church's Rosary Altar Society.

Pontiac Crucifix Is Set On Fire

PONTIAC (AP) — Someone set fire to a $12,000 Crucifix monument on the lawn of St. Joseph's Catholic Church before dawn Easter Morning, authorities said.

"We believe it was arson," said Orion Township Fire Chief Jack Caylor. Damage to the Crucifix, which measures 18 feet from fingertip to fingertip, was estimated at $500.

A passing motorist saw the flames shortly after midnight and ran into the church to alert ushers who were there for Easter Vigil Midnight Mass.

Firemen quickly put out the flames. When worshippers arrived around dawn the fiberglass statue was blackened by the fire.

The Rev. R. Vincent Myrick said in his sermon that the sacrilegious nature of the act was the real crime, rather than arson.

"We ought to pray for the person who did this," he told his flock. "I do not feel that it was a

Motel At Detroit Gets ARA Money

The Area Redevelopment Administration of the U.S. Commerce Department announces a $336,000 industrial loan to the London Inn Motel in Detroit to build and equip a 103-room motel and related facilities.

Total cost of the project will be $1,623,579. The ARA loan will run for 25 years and bear an annual interest rate of 4 per cent. The Public Bank of Detroit will loan $850,000, the Detroit Metropolitan Industrial Development Corp. will invest $162,358 and the motel firm will put up $575,221 as equity. The Small Business Administration recommended the loan. Detroit was eligible because of its persistent unemployment.

The London Inn is the third motel project aided by ARA in the Detroit-Port Huron area in recent months.

Thirty-four projects have thus far been approved under the ARA program in Michigan. This represents a total investment of $6.2 million to help create an estimated "nearly 2,200 direct and indirect jobs and to retain 1,100 unemployed workers for available jobs in their areas," says ARA.

In the Upper Peninsula ARA has made a loan of $250,000 and grant of $150,000 to the Copper Peak ski flying project of the Gogebic Range Ski Club, a spectator sport enterprise. Funds have been available since last June, says ARA, but a land ownership problem has stymied action. The land is owned by Oliver Mining Division of U.S. Steel Corp. and a long term lease is acceptable to ARA, but the Community Facilities Administration which makes ARA loans is concerned about security for the bonds.

ARA has approved a $195,000 loan to the Marquette & Huron Railroad in a project to cost about $500,000 for development of the Marquette to Big Bay branch of the L&N Railroad as a recreational venture and part of the Superland project headed by John Zerbel. Other phases of the Superland project are being developed and have not been presented to ARA yet.

ARA has made a loan of $202,000 to Northboard, Inc., of Leon River, for its composition board plant.

ARA has been asked to make a $915,000 loan to the $1,407,000 Copper Harbor Corp. all year resort project in Keweenaw, headed by Bruce Reid of Milwaukee, who has been active in the Aspen, Colo., ski resort development.
